

John P. Besselman

Senior Legal Advisor for Training
Office of Chief Counsel
Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers
U.S. Department of Homeland Security

John Besselman is the Senior Legal Advisor for Training at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers. His duties include coordinating the Homeland Security Law Training Program and coordinating and presenting the Leadership Development Program. In this role, John's primary responsibility is providing the DHS legal community with leadership and DHS-specific training opportunities. You can also find John involved in a variety of other legal training products, such as the OGC podcast series and the cyber literacy program.

John previously served as the Division Chief of the Legal Division of the Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers in Glynco, Georgia. Prior to that, he served as the Division Chief of the Driver and Marine Division, the Training Transformation Officer, and as a Branch Chief and Senior Instructor in the Legal Division.

John has served as an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for Cumberland County, Maine, and Licking County, Ohio. He was also an attorney with the Office of Chief Counsel, U.S. Customs Service where he trained Customs Service law enforcement personnel and served as Attorney-Advisor to agents and inspectors in the field. John also served as an Attorney-Advisor in the Chicago Regional Counsel's Office for U.S. Customs.

John graduated from Kent State University with a B.S. in Criminal Justice, Ohio State University College of Law with a J.D., and Georgia Southern University with a Masters in Public Administration.

As a Senior Legal Instructor at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, John founded and was the Editor of The Quarterly Review (later renamed the Informer), served as the Editor of the Legal Division Student Handbook (later renamed Legal Division Handbook), and Editor of the Legal Issues Source Book (later renamed Legal Division Reference Book).

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT: This form contains personal data voluntarily supplied by the subject and is considered For Official Use Only (FOUO). This information is provided for the sole purpose of familiarizing our Partner Organizations with the qualifications of the FLETC training staff. Inappropriate disclosure of this information could result in disciplinary action, a fine of up to $5,000 or both (P.L. 93-579).