

SEVERE THUNDERSTORM WARNING

May I have your attention please? The National Weather Service has issued a severe weather alert for this area. Such storms may include threats such as rain, hail, high winds and lightning. All staff and students at the FLETC are to promptly seek shelter until the threat is over. This is not a test. I repeat, The National Weather Service has issued a severe weather alert for this area. All staff and students are to seek shelter immediately.